

ARROWSMITH'S

WINES BY THE GLASS (OR BOTTLE)

RED:

	GLASS/BOTTLE
Arrowsmith, La Flechette, 2020 (Bordeaux Blend - Santa Ynez Valley, CA) Vegan	$18/$55
THEY SAY: Blackcurrant and black cherry notes, a touch of spice, and gentle tannins make this a versatile and easy drinking red blend of 75% Cabernet Sauvignon and 25% Merlot.
WE SAY: Spring 2020 brought lockdowns and heavy rain, followed by a long hot Summer. Our vines thrived, producing beautiful fruits that was ripened by some of the highest temperatures ever recorded in this region. Grown at our home and harvested by us by hand on October 16, 2020, on our tiny 3/4 of an acre vineyard situated only 3 miles away from the bar.
Arrowsmith, 2020 Malbec (Malbec - Santa Barbara, California) Vegan	$18/$50
THEY SAY: This wine was sourced from Tommy Town, a sun-baked vineyard in Happy Canyon. It has rich, red fruit flavors of redcurrant and cherry, with subtle plum notes. Gentle acidity and modest tannins provide refined balance to the wine, with excellent potential for cellaring.
WE SAY: Recently, Tim and I have been drinking this like it is water...
Arrowsmith, 2020 Petite Sirah (Petite Sirah - Santa Barbara, California) Vegan	$17/$45
THEY SAY: The long, hot summer of 2020 gave us perfect Tommy Town fruit again, the result was a wine with the deep, dark berry flavors for which Petite Sirah is renowned. Reminiscent of home-cooked blackberry pie, or the slow-cooked berry confitures of Southern France, this is a rich, full and intense wine. Acidity and tannins are gentle and well balanced, and the wine exhibits subtle licorice notes.
WE SAY: Very deep, very dark, very lovely. Almost purple.
Bastide Miraflores 2018 (Grenache-Syrah - Roussillon, France)	$16/$36
THEY SAY: A fabulous minerality as well as terrific kirsch, black raspberry, wild fennel, white pepper, and hints of black licorice aromas and flavors. Pure, medium to full-bodied, silky, and seamless on the palate, it's perfectly balanced, and way over-delivers.
WE SAY: You've tried local GSM, so now try the French's take on it. Interesting and established.
Clendenen Family Vineyard, "The Pip" 2018 (Nebbiolo - Santa Maria, California)	$18/$45
THEY SAY: A deep red, oaky wine with aromas and flavors of plums and dried roses. Tastes of plum, blackberry, dried roses and earth. Balance between the richness, the bright acidity, and moderated tannins, make this wine an all-around food wine.
WE SAY: Made by a local legend, it's like Piedmont in a glass, and takes us right back to North West Italy.
CVNE, 2018, Selección de Fincas Garnacha (Grenache. Rioja, Spain)	$12/$35
THEY SAY: This CVNE wine is made from 100% Garnacha grapes. This variety is characterized by making wines with great aromatic complexity. 100% Garnacha presents perfumed aromas and freshness. Slight smoky notes that are given by its passage through the wood.
WE SAY: Tim loves a Rioja! You can almost literally taste Spain in a glass with this very typical classic wine.

Wine Club members receive 20% off all wines and free tastings!

Ferraton 2016 Crozes Hermitage (Syrah - Rhone, France)$15/$50

THEY SAY: This Syrah offers inviting notes of smoke and burnt sugar, complemented by cassis and blackberry flavors. With fine, persistent tannins and a spicy, peppery finish, it's a Syrah that marries immediate approachability with elegance.

WE SAY: Tim loved this wine especially. A wine for those who like more tannins and smoke in their reds.

Il Palazzotto Dolcetto di Diano d'Alba, Italy$16/$40

THEY SAY: A dry red wine, this Dolcetto is soft and structured, perfect for daily enjoyment. It's straightforward, delicious, and a true ambassador of this grape variety, cherished by the Piemontese with their robust cuisine.

WE SAY: Anna doesn't like many Italian wines, she finds them too earthy. This wine is a delightful exception. It is fruity and smooth, retaining delicacy with depth too.

Labyrinth, 2019 (Cabernet Sauvignon, Paso Robles California) Vegan$17/$55

THEY SAY: Deep concentrated ruby color with a nose of bold lifted black & red berry with clay and smoky graphite accents. Tastes of juicy blueberry/blackberry with nuances of espresso and black liquorice

WE SAY: A delightfully rounded and fully balanced California Cab with lots of delicious fruit.

A rare thing in our book.

Lubanzi 2020, 355ml Can (Shiraz, Grenache, Mourvèdre – Swartland, S. Africa)$16

THEY SAY: an old-school Rhone blend with contemporary style, we make this wine to showcase the red champion of South Africa, shiraz. Black fruit and spice with barley sugar, lemon iced tea, and hints of cracked black pepper. Deliciously floral, fruity, and earthy. (Fair Trade and Fair For Life Certified).

WE SAY: We are so surprised how far canned wine has come! A solid red blend in a handy can, lovely with your lunch.

Pala, Centosere, Organic 2021 (Grenache, Sardinia, Italy) Vegan$16/$40

THEY SAY: Intense & fresh wine with aromas of ripe red fruits, tomato leaf, fresh violets & spice and a mouthfeel that is dry & well-structured. It boasts vibrant, exuberant notes of ripe red fruits on the nose. Dry and smooth on the palate with good structure and length. Pairs well with spicy foods, charcuterie and medium-aged cheeses.

James Suckling 91 Points

WE SAY: A lovely, interesting Italian wine, great for Italian food. Try a new grape you've not heard of!

Tantara 2019 (Cabernet Franc - Estate Grown, Los Olivos, California)$18/$60

THEY SAY: This luscious wine has a dense ruby with some brick color to it, a nose of satsuma plum and red currant with cinnamon and blackberry cordial notes. The taste is full of ripe black fruits, jammy with chocolate and raspberry leaf flashes, warm and opulent.

WE SAY: One of Tim and my favorites, lovely color. Opulent is the right word!

Tantara Cuvée Rita 2019 (Pinot Noir, Sta. Rita Hills, California)$18/$55

THEY SAY: This is one of 2900 bottles of the limited-edition cuvee fashioned from select barrels of Pinot Noir from the finest vineyards in Sta. Rita Hills

WE SAY: A classic Sta Rita Hills Pinot, lots of solid class.

WHITE:Arrowsmith Chardonnay 2022 (Chardonnay - Santa Maria Valley, California)*$18/$45

THEY SAY: The Santa Maria Valley's cool breezes and foggy mornings provide the perfect conditions for Chardonnay to thrive. This wine exemplifies this, with a fresh taste that is all its own.

WE SAY: A Chablis-style Chardonnay, easy on the oak and butter, both light and fulfilling. Fantastic!

GLASS/BOTTLE

J Dusi 2021 (Pinot Grigio – Paso Robles, California)

$15/$30

THEY SAY: This warm climate white boasts bright lychee and tart tropical fruits are balanced by its acidity on the mid-palate, tailed by a lingering apricot finish. This clean, crisp white wine is aged in stainless steel to showcase the bright fruit and natural acidity.

WE SAY: The lightest and freshest of wines for the hottest of days. Dangerously drinkable!

Tantara, Sierra Madre 2019 (Chardonnay, Santa Maria, CA)

$17/$50

THEY SAY: Lemon with flashes of straw. Ripe white peach, nectarine and cantaloupe developing to baked Granny Smith apple. White peach continues into yellow peach, grapefruit rind and pineapple but overall maintaining the zesty baked apple signature.

WE SAY: This is a more subtle example of the classic oaked and buttery California Chardonnay, it has much, much more finesse than most. Antonio Galloni (Vinous) 94 points

Tiki, 2021 (Sauvignon Blanc – Marlborough, New Zealand)

$16/$30

THEY SAY: Aromas of tropical fruits, gooseberry and dried herbs, fresh, flinty green characters and minerality of fruit underpin a tropical and citrus spectrum. A full-flavored wine rich in tropical fruit and herbal notes.

WE SAY: A classic, delicious fruity yet zingy New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc.

ORANGE AND ROSE:

Arrowsmith's 2022 Ballerina, Rose Wine (Pinot Noir – Santa Maria, California)

$16/$40

THEY SAY: Made exclusively from Pinot Noir, this rose possesses the gentle perfume and structure for which this wine is renowned. The Santa Maria Valley's cool breezes and foggy mornings provide the perfect conditions for Pinot Noir to thrive, resulting in wine with the balance, finesse and beauty of a ballet dancer.

WE SAY: Our second vintage! We are so proud of this, especially as Anna helped design the label. It's smooth and delicious. Delicate, like a French rosé.

Union Sacre 2022 Edelzwicker, Orange Wine (Pinot Gris, Riesling, Pinot Blanc, Sylvaner, Gewürztraminer – Central Coast, California)

$17/$42

THEY SAY: Tangerine, peaches, Asian pear and lilies.

WE SAY: A delightfully smooth and unique blend that has just a detectable touch of Gewürtz, both interesting and delicious.

SPARKLING:

Chapel Down Brut (Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Pinot Meunier & Pinot Blanc – England)

$18/$50

THEY SAY: Chapel Down Brut NV is a classic example of quality English sparkling wine with aromas of red apple, citrus fruits and freshly baked bread together with hints of strawberry and quince on the palate and fine persistent bubbles.

WE SAY: Just as good as any Champagne if not better, just half the price. Don't miss it, England is on the up!
Silver, Decanter World Wine Awards 2020, Silver, International Challenge 2020

Jeio Prosecco DOCG (Glera, Veneto, Italy)

$16/$36

THEY SAY: A fresh and lively Prosecco with lots of lemon and lime character, as well as spiced pears. Medium body, lovely fruit and a fresh finish.

JamesSuckling.com 91 Points

WE SAY: A classic Prosecco with real style, for all your Prosecco needs.

Wine Club members receive 20% off all wines and free tastings!

Lubanzi 2021, 250ml Rose Bubbles in a Can (100% Cinsault – Swartland, S Africa)$14

THEY SAY: a unique sparkling rosé fizzing with a light, airy effervescence similar to prosecco. Dry, crisp & refreshing, with a bouquet of aromatics and a brilliant pale pink color. There is minerality and balanced acidity on the palate, with notes of wild cherries & ripe summer strawberries. (Fair Trade and Fair For Life Certified).

WE SAY: We love Cinsault and nobody does it as a 100% varietal, so we were so pleased to find one from somewhere as surprising as South Africa. Don't be put off by the can, this works surprisingly well.

AFTER - DINNER WINES:Broadbent Rainwater Medium-dry Madeira (3oz) Tinta Negra - Portugal*$15/$35

THEY SAY: A light, toffee-scented bouquet with hints of crème brûlée. Notes of marzipan, raisin and fresh fig, sweet and spicy on the entry. It is understated at first with smoked walnut, nougat, cumin and Chinese 5-spice and it builds gently towards a harmonious, beautifully balanced finish with traces of red chilies, dried honey and walnuts.

WE SAY: We holidayed in the island of Madeira where we first tasted the delights of this wine and we highly recommend it. It is different from other sweet wines, it's warming yet fresh with lots of lovely almonds.

Broadbent White Porto (3oz) Malvasia Fina, Códega, Rabigato, Gouveio - Portugal$15/$35

THEY SAY: Golden color with a very good nose and honey aromas. Palate is sweet and nutty.

WE SAY: Bring on the white port! The drink that us Brits drank so much of in the 1990's. If you haven't tried white port, it's time to...

Inniskillin Vidal Ice Wine Pearl (3 oz) Canada$20/$88

THEY SAY: Intense yet lively, with apple pie, almond, vanilla and butter flavors permeating the creamy texture, balanced by vivid acidity that drives the extended finish.

WE SAY: A delicious dessert wine. Try it, it's different! Wine Spectator 91 Points/Wine Advocate 93 Points

Ramos Pinto Port LBV 2017 (3 oz) Porto - Portugal$16/$45

THEY SAY: Dark red color, dense, vivid, cherry, raspberry and blackcurrant. Delicate floral notes (violets) and balsamic hints. On the palate, cherry flavors are confirmed and combine with suggestions of cocoa and eucalyptus. A fresh, balanced, very aromatic wine with silky tannins and a fruit driven finish.

WE SAY: The Port that made Anna like Port again after avoiding it for decades since overindulgence as a teenager. Delicious and fruity, not dry and headachy. Made by the only female winemaker in Oporto!

Wine Enthusiast 91 PointsRoyal Tokaji Late Harvest, 2018 (3oz) – Tokaj, Hungary*$16/$40

THEY SAY: Pale gold color with delicate aromas of exotic fruits and spice. Light and fresh on the palate with hints of white peach, the wine is medium sweet with an excellent acid balance, a silky texture and a clean, long, crisp finish.

WE SAY: This is the wine that turned us on to sweet wines. It's delicately balanced and delicious.

"Bring me the breakfast wines" Lower alcohol sparklers that put the fizz back into your day...

Bava, Bass Tuba Moscato D'Asti 2020 (5.5% ABV)(Moscato - Piemonte, Italy)$16/$32

THEY SAY: The bouquet on the nose is aromatic, delicate and fragrant with notes of citrus, apricot, fig and orange blossom. On the palate it is delicately sparkling, pleasantly sweet, yet mild with a rich Moscato flavor.

WE SAY: A sweet white that manages to stay clear of being clingy, an enjoyable holiday in the mouth even for those who normally would choose a drier wine.

Wine Club members receive 20% off all wines and free tastings!

Quercioli, Reggiano (8.5% ABV) (Lambrusco DOC, Italy)

THEY SAY: Bright ruby red with persistent bubbles, the wine shows delicate floral notes of violet leading to a luxuriously sweet, fresh, vivacious palate that is pleasantly harmonious.

WE SAY: If you are looking for a sweet red wine, this is the one for you. Yummy...

WINES BY THE BOTTLE:RED:*Domaine Dozon Clos Du Saut Au Loup, 2020 (Cabernet Franc – Chinon, France)BOTTLE$50

THEY SAY: Vibrant purple color. Traditional notes of plum skin, raspberries and capsicum abound. Manageable tannins and herbal notes underscore a direct fruitiness.

WE SAY: Tim can't stop talking about this wine, he is crazy for it. I like it too, but he just won't shut up about it. A subtle, beautiful alternative to Cabernet Sauvignon.

Donna Laura, 2018 Bramosia, Chianti Classico DOCG (Sangiovese & Merlot – Chianti, Italy)$35

THEY SAY: With a deep ruby color and intense aromas of cherry and red berry, this Chianti classico balances ripe fruit and acidity with notes of spice. Overall, deeply intense.

WE SAY: We don't usually like Chianti as it can be very spicy and earthy, but this wine drinks very easily...

John Duval, 2022 – Concilio (Grenache, Barossa Valley, Australia)$60

THEY SAY: A bright, vibrant new release Grenache blend (86% Grenache, 14% Shiraz) showing soft textured fruit and a gentle lick of savoury tannin. It's a cracker & weighted just-so and laden with sour cherry and red plum fruits, exotic spices, gingerbread, red licorice and earth.

95 points, Wine Companion, 93 points, The Wine Front

WE SAY: We have a thing for grenache at the moment, and we were really glad to find a great Australian one!

Eco Terreno, Estate Grown 2018 (Cabernet Sauvignon, Alexander Valley, CA)$40

THEY SAY: Bright dark crimson color with a bright red rim. Cassis, blackberry, pomegranate and caramel aromas fill the very fragrant nose. Flavors: ripe blackberry and lush black cherry impressions.

WE SAY: A very nice, tasty, blackcurrant-y, oaky wine. Yum.

Jacques Girardin, 2017 – Premier Cru – (Pinot Noir, Santenay Clos Rousseau, France)$90

THEY SAY: A snappy and fresh wine that uses natural fermentation and sustainable practices to bring forth a wine with aromas of redcurrant, cranberry, and nutmeg and a mouthfeel that is elegantly ripe. Deep garnet color. Very ripe dark fruit aromas: black currants, red plums. Layered texture and ripe tannins, round on the palate, followed by a long, satisfying finish. This Santenay is definitely a food wine, with its accessible style and firm yet rich structure. Aging potential 8 to 10 years. This wine represents superb value for a Premier Cru Burgundy!

WE SAY: A definite for those who love their high-end Pinots, try a French one and be delighted!

Domaine Les fines Graves Moulin a Vent 2022 (Gamay – Beaujolais, France)$46

THEY SAY: It is the Moulin-à Vent, the queen of Beaujolais, that reigns at this estate. Deep, brooding and quite Burgundian in nature, this is one of the most masculine and age-worthy of all Beaujolais wines. Explosive nose of raspberries, red currants, plums; medium body with layers of fruit on the palate, plush texture, fruit lasts through the finish, acidity well balanced by the fruit.

WE SAY: A gamay with some clout, let the wine change your mind about Beaujolais, they are not all light!

BOTTLE

Gusbourne 2018 (Pinot Noir - Kent, England)

THEY SAY: Smoke, peony petal, a touch of vanilla and ripe, red cherry notions all combine on the youthful nose. The aromas hover between oak and richness and far more tender and shy flowers and fruit. The body is smooth and sonorous, essentially lithe but imbued with the generosity of subtle, smoky oak.

WE SAY: This is very rare in the USA! We tried very hard to get an English Pinot. We won't have it for long...

Stephane Vedeau Mademoiselle Du Mont Cotes du Rhone, 2021 (Grenache, Syrah & Mourvedre, France) $35

THEY SAY: Brilliant ruby red in color. The nose reveals a gourmet bouquet of red fruits and spices. On the pallet, the wine is simple and harmonious. The finish is fine and sapid.

WE SAY: If you're used to GSM's from California, try this lovely French version, fruity yet balanced. Delightful.

Tantara 2019 Lindsay's Vineyard (Pinot Noir, Sta Rita Hills, CA) $65

THEY SAY: The winery has been working with this same block since 2005, and its experience shows, starting with aromas of rugged thyme, bay leaf, peppercorn and wild cherry. There's an earthy core to the palate, with forest floor, moss, wild mint and thyme flavors, but quite a lot of raspberry fruit as well. Extremely energetic throughout."

Matt Kettmann" - 95 Points, Wine Enthusiast

WE SAY: Catch this delicious and delightful Pinot from a great Santa Rita Hills Vineyard whilst you can!

WHITE AND ROSÉ:

Leon Beyer 2019 (Gewurztraminer - Alsace, France) $44

THEY SAY: Full-bodied and well-structured, is probably the best-known Alsace wine. Its intense bouquet displays rich aromas of fruit, flowers and spices (gewurz = spicy). Powerful and seductive mango, passion fruit and rose petals. The House of Leon Beyer dates back to 1580!

WE SAY: We LOVE this wine too! Another aromatic wine that is full of flowers in the nose followed by a delicious smooth finish. We think if people could pronounce it, it would be famous! (and we had to practice hard to pronounce it...)

Collet Premier Cru "Les Forêts 2020 (Chardonnay - Chablis, France) $70

THEY SAY: Collet ferments the wine in a combination of 90% cement egg and 10% used barrel, aged for about 12 months. No stirring of the lees. It is dynamic and angular, which flirts with scents of wet stone, sea spray and peach skin. On the palate find savory nuances, white flowers, honey and anise.

WE SAY: Alas, the more expensive French wine is really worth the money, sighs.

C.V.N.E. Monopole Blanco, 2021 (Viura - Rioja, Spain) Vegan $30

THEY SAY: This charmingly easy-to-drink wine will float anyone's boat who loves freshness and fruit.

100% Viura aka Macabeo manifests itself in this wine as a less flinty Chablis alternative with notes of fresh citrus, crisp yellow apple, and melon. Spain's oldest existing white wine brand, produced since 1915!

WE SAY: A delicious, fresh wine, an authentic taste of Spain. James Suckling 92 points

Domaine Dyckerhoff, Reuilly, 2022 (Sauvignon Blanc - Loire Valley, France) $48

THEY SAY: Round yet crisp, with flavors of lime, grapefruit, and gooseberry layered with accents of pea shoots and herbs. Reuilly is located approximately 45 miles southwest of Sancerre, a world-renowned Sauvignon Blanc region. While they share the same geology and therefore produce wines of similar quality, Reuilly's "under the radar" status means that its wines are considerably less expensive.

WE SAY: If you're used to sharper Sauvignon Blanc, try this one it's more subtle and will change the way that you see the grape, just lovely!

BOTTLE

Labyrinth, Orange Muscat, 2019 (Orange Muscat, Paso Robles, California)

THEY SAY: Pale lemon color with hints of green and a nose of orange oil with hints of sweet tangerine and marmalade. This wine has a rounded mouth feel, with ripe citrus, just a touch candied but finishes dry.

WE SAY: An interesting aromatic wine, it's a dry wine but has citrus notes on the nose which makes for a very interesting and complex sensory experience, dry to taste but with sweet notes on the nose. Just lovely!

Montirius Vacq Perle Rose, 2020 (Grenache – Southern Rhone, France)

$40

THEY SAY: A delightful 'Pearl of Dew' wine has distinct raspberry aromas. It's fresh, salty, gourmet, winey, creamy, dainty and well-balanced. No sulphites are added to the bottling. A delicious French, classic rose, delicate and fresh, no bubblegum here!

WE SAY: A favorite of our wine club members, with re-orders happening immediately, catch this one while you can!

Neveu Sancerre, (Sauvignon Blanc), 2022, France

$50

THEY SAY: Assembled in great years from the Neveu family's best parcels around Verdigny, Chavignol, and Sancerre, "PFX"—as it is affectionately known by the family—is raised in oak rather than stainless steel (the former being the historical norm in Sancerre). The oak adds a grain and level of class and backbone that raises this cuvée a step above the domaine's classic Sancerre bottling. PFX ages more slowly and gracefully than most Sancerres, and it makes a great cellar diversification play.

WE SAY: A lovely, delicate Sauvignon Blanc. We looked for a long time for a really good, yet reasonably priced Sancerre, we now have it.

Paul Lato, 'O Sole Mio 2021 (Sauvignon Blanc – Santa Ynez Valley, California)

$69

THEY SAY: Made from a 100% organic vineyard in the heart of Santa Ynez Valley, [at Two Wolves Vineyard, owned and run by the singer Pink!] this Sauvignon Blanc was whole cluster pressed at 22 brix, then fermented and aged in both concrete and stainless-steel vessels... brilliant ripe flavors balance with crisp acidity.

WE SAY: We recently came across Paul Lato and have found all of his wines to be excellent.

SPARKLING:

Canard-Duchêne (Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Pinot Meunier - Champagne, France) VEGAN

375ml $36

THEY SAY: Intense aromas of fresh fruit, typical of Pinot varieties. Eye: A golden hue and delicate.

750ml $70

Bubbles. Palate: Notes of fruit coupled with hints of buttery brioche. Fresh intensity & noble character, with aromas of fresh red berries, crisp apples & pears, a touch of smoke and buttery brioche.

WE SAY: A lovely, easy drinking, classic Champagne, not too yeasty for once! Decanter 91 Points

Dirler-Cadé Crémant d'Alsace Brut Nature (Pinot Gris, Auxerrois, Riesling – Alsace, France)

$55

THEY SAY: A dry, biodynamic sparkling wine produced from This Brut Nature combines body and a straight freshness. Foaming is carried out with the natural sugar of the grapes. This a lovely bone-dry sparkler for any occasion.

WE SAY: We love Alsatian whites and this is a great sparkling wine from the region, dry and delicate.

91 points Revue du Vin de France Nov 2022, by Karine Valentin and Alexis Goujard

BOTTLEDom Vigneau Chevreau – Vouvray Brut (Sauvignon Blanc – Loire, France)*$50

THEY SAY: An aromatic and complex wine characterized by its fine bubbles, its bright yellow color and aromas of brioche, apples, quince, citrus and white peach. On the palate it fresh and lively character, the brioche aroma fades, giving way to hazelnut and almond.

WE SAY: Give Vouvray another chance, it's come a long way since the unsophisticated wine of the 1980's!

Emile Beyer Crémant d'Alsace Extra Brut NV (Auxerrois, Chardonnay, Pinot Blanc – Alsace, France)$54

THEY SAY: Endowed with a creamy mousse and the savory scents and flavors of mountain grown apples and freshly baked brioche, it is hard to imagine a finer, more elegant wine, sparkling or still. Natural tasting and refreshingly dry straight through to the finish, it truly puts to shame the vast majority of sparkling wines, including Champagne, in flavor, purity, and drinking pleasure. (92 Points – Wine Enthusiast)

WE SAY: An organic wine since 2014, this wine is pure pleasure. Search out the Cremant d'Alsace wines, better value than Champagne and often greater quality too!

Karatta (Shiraz-Cabernet – Australia)$40

THEY SAY: Notes of cherry, licorice and blackberry notes. Balanced tannins and sweet fruit spice.

WE SAY: This southern Australian wine has 20.5 grams per liter residual sugar, meaning it is red sparkler that isn't a sweet wine, something Tim and I have been searching for two years!

Kettern Spatburgunder, Sekt Rose (Pinot Noir – Mosel, Germany)$55

THEY SAY: A luxurious sparkler with a creamy texture and volcanic soil expression that adds a unique touch. The piercing clarity of its soil expression is unmissable, there is an almost volcanic quality to the soil flavors. We hope and expect this one to become a cult favorite.

WE SAY: A delicious, delicate and interesting sparkling wine.

Pierre Paillard, Les Parcelles Bouzy Grand Cru, Extra Brut (Pinot Noir, Chardonnay - Champagne, France)$88

THEY SAY: Bright and lithe, with a floral overtone to the flavors of Honeycrisp apple, biscuit and lemon meringue. The lively bead carries ground ginger and anise notes on the lingering, creamy finish.

WE SAY: Beautiful, beautiful!!! Subtle with the softest and tiniest of bubbles. A pure delight!

Wine Spectator 92 Points.Taittinger, (Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Pinot Meunier - Champagne, France)*375ml $40

THEY SAY: This wine has a subtle, pale gold color with fine, persistent bubbles. It is delicate, with aromas of peach, white flowers, vanilla pod, and brioche on the nose and flavors of fresh fruit and honey on the palate.

750ml $80

WE SAY: A classic all round Champagne. Exactly as you are expecting it to possess, quality and timelessness.
